

June 17, 2023
8:30 to 10:30

Room 17

Session 37: [EC. THEORY] (MINERVA LAB) Women and data

Session Chair: Valeria Cirillo, Università di Bari

1. The younger siblings of PIL: the contribution of women in National Accounts

By Maria Letizia D'Autilia, ISTAT

Discussant: Giulia Zacchia, Sapienza Università di Roma

2. Quantifying the world we imagine: Feminist alternative accounting systems

By Johanna Gautier Morin, European University Institute

Discussant: Maria Letizia D'Autilia, ISTAT

3. Data feminism

By Marcella Corsi & Giulia Zacchia, Sapienza Università di Roma

Discussant: Johanna Gautier Morin, European University Institute

Room 18

Session 38: [EC. THEORY] (ADEK-IPKN) Italian and French insights on the monetary circuit

Session Chair: Virginie Monvoisin, Grenoble Ecole de Management

1. A Post-Keynesian circuitist view of gross capital flows in the international dollar system

By Domenica Tropeano, Università di Macerata

Discussant: Thomas Lagoarde-Segot, KEDGE Business School

2. Graziani's monetary circuit theory and Schumpeterian innovative dynamics

By Stefano Lucarelli, Università di Bergamo

Discussant: Domenica Tropeano, Università di Macerata

3. History of the French circuit school: Between legacies and debates

By Eric Berr, Bordeaux School of Economics, & Virginie Monvoisin, Grenoble Ecole de Management

Discussant: Stefano Lucarelli, Università di Bergamo

Room 19

Session 39: [HET] Marxian perspectives

Session Chair: Saverio M. Fratini, Università Roma Tre

1. Equilibrium and dynamics in Marx and the classics: A comparative study

By Giovanni Scarano, Università Roma Tre

Discussant: Sergio Cesaratto, Università di Siena

2. Three approaches to institutions in economic analysis: Polanyi, North and the surplus approach's third way

By Sergio Cesaratto, Università di Siena

Discussant: Alessandro Le Donne, Università di Genova

3. Re-discovering Sraffa and classical political economy with an “open” historical materialism

By Alessandro Le Donne, Università di Genova

Discussant: Saverio M. Fratini, Università Roma Tre

Room 20

Session 40: [INEQ] Gender inequalities: An interdisciplinary perspective II

Session Chair: Ylenia Curci, RECITS, FEMTO, UTBM

1. Put up with professional gender inequalities or correcting them? What women want

By Ylenia Curci, RECITS, FEMTO, UTBM

Discussant: Silvia Donà, INAPP

2. Algorithmic discriminations and new forms of protections. An analysis of the Italian case

By Marina De Angelis & Silvia Donà, INAPP

Discussant: Chiara Mussida, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore

3. The pursuit of non-poverty: An economic approach to the analysis of in-work-poverty determinants

By Chiara Mussida, Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, & Raffaella Patimo, Università di Bari Aldo Moro

Discussant: Ylenia Curci, RECITS, FEMTO, UTBM

Room 21

Session 41: [ISSUES] Open economies and the global economy

Session Chair: Maria Cristina Barbieri Góes, Università di Bari Aldo Moro

1. Mercantilism revisited: A reconstruction from a modern demand-led growth perspective

By Mohib Ali, Università di Siena

Discussant: Maria Cristina Barbieri Góes, Università di Bari Aldo Moro

2. The lack of a satisfactory definition of comparative advantage

By Guido Ianni, UNSAM

Discussant: Mohib Ali, Università di Siena

3. The impact of EU CBAM on prices, international competitiveness, and emissions: an input-output analysis

By Marco Amendola, Università dell'Aquila

Discussant: Guido Ianni, UNSAM

Room 22

Session 42: [ISSUES] Growth and development II

Session Chair: Christophe Depoortère, CEMOI

1. Real exchange rate trend and inflation targeting regime: Empirical evidence for selected developed and developing countries (AKB)

By Eliane Araujo, UEM, Carmem Feijo, Rafael Leao, FGV, Andre Nassif, UFF

Discussant: Giuseppe Celi, Università di Foggia

2. New export specializations, structural transformation and path-dependence: new evidence and methodologies

By Nicola Coniglio & Davide Vurchio, Università di Bari Aldo Moro

Discussant: Dario Guarascio, Sapienza Università di Roma

3. From miracle to decline: Understanding Italy's long-term trajectory

By Giuseppe Celi, Università di Foggia, Dario Guarascio, Sapienza Università di Roma, & Francesco Zezza, Sapienza Università di Roma

Discussant: Christophe Depoortère, CEMOI

Room 23

Session 43: [METHOD] (RETHINKING ECONOMICS) New approaches in teaching economics

Session Chair: Angela Ambrosino, Università di Torino

1. New didactic approaches to the history of economics: The experience of Rethinking Economics Turin

By Angela Ambrosino, Flavia Capasso, & Fabio Locci, Università di Torino

Discussant: Sam Hummel, Duke University

2. Correcting the pedagogy of money in the circular flow diagram

By Sam Hummel, Duke University

Discussant: Flavia Capasso, Università di Torino

3. Student-led lectures: Empowering student engagement and pluralism in economics

By Tobias Angela, Università Roma Tre, & Talita Quaresma Ferreira, EPOG Master

Discussant: Fabio Locci, Università di Torino

Rethinking
Economics